for at-home residents with library cards who are unable to get to the library on their own.

The Friends of Snow Library are launching a new Book Delivery Program called The Snow Mobile and are looking for volunteers who would be interested in delivering books to people who, for various reasons, are unable to get to the library on their own.

The Orleans Council on Aging has agreed to help train volunteers to go into the home. They will also perform a confidential, required CORI check for those interested in participating.

There is no cost involved, the time requirement is minimal and the rewards are many! Please consider helping with this much needed community service.
